CAMP COMMUNICATIONS

By the authority vested in me as Commander of General William Passmore Carlin Camp No. 25, Dept. of California and Pacific, 1305 Wheeler Way, Gardnerville, Nevada, 89460, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Camp Communications: Communications between the Camp Commander and all Camp members is essential for Camp efficiency and effectiveness. The best means of communication for quickness is email. The next best means of communication is telephone. The third method is regular mail. All Camp 25 members are to provide communication with the Camp Commander at least by telephone and regular mail. The Camp Commander, Senior Vice Commander, Junior Vice Commander and the Secretary-Treasurer are to provide all three means of communication between each other and Department Officers.

The foregoing Camp Order is proclaimed this 1st day of November in the year of our Lord two thousand three, in the City of Garnerville, County of Douglas, State of Nevada by Paul F. Washeleski, Camp Commander of General William Passmore Carlin Camp No. 25, the Department of California and Pacific, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War.
