SESQUICENTENNIAL OF THE STATEHOOD OF NEVADA

By the authority vested in me as Commander of General William Passmore Carlin Camp 25, Department of California and Pacific, by the Camp Bylaws, the Department Bylaws, the National Constitution and Regulations, and National Policies, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1: It should be remembered and honored that on October 31, 1864, Nevada became the 36th state to enter the Union, and this year marks the 150th anniversary of that event. One of the State's nicknames is "The Battle Born State" because of its entry during the great War of the Rebellion, a.k.a the Civil War. Nevada became a territory on March 2, 1861, and starting in April 1863, under the designation First Nevada Volunteers, provided six companies of cavalry and three of infantry to help man camps forts (including Churchill and Ruby, in Nevada; Independence in California; Douglas in Utah; and Bridger in Wyoming), round up criminals and Copperheads, protect to road communication systems, and fight marauding Indians (particularly the northern Piutes). Silver and gold from the State's booming mineral industry helped back the value of the currency, and the State's three electoral votes helped with Mr. Lincoln's re-election in 1864. In January, 1865, Nevada's first congressman, Henry G. Worthington, was one of the barely two-thirds majority in the House of Representatives to vote for the passage of the 13th amendment, which abolished slavery.

The foregoing Camp Order is proclaimed this 18th day of October in the year of our Lord two thousand fourteen, in the City of Reno, County of Washoe, State of Nevada by John A. Riggs, Camp Commander of General William Passmore Carlin Camp 25, the Department of California and Pacific, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War.

Section 1: Veterans Day, November 11, 2014: All Camp members shall demonstrate Honor and Respect for all Veterans that dedicated themselves to the preservation of principles set forth by the United States of America on Veterans Day by flying the Flag of the United States of America and taking a few moments to pray for the Veterans that sacrificed their lives and their loved ones who grieve that loss. It should also be noted that while this sacred day was formerly known as Armistice Day marking the end of World War I, it was changed to Veterans Day 60 years ago on June 1, 1954, to be inclusive of the World War II and Korean War veterans (a dwindling number of old Spanish-American War and a couple of Civil War veterans were also still around).
