

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War

Department of California and Pacific

Established 1886
Includes Nevada and Hawaii

1771 N. Twinberry Ave.
Clovis, CA 93619-9139
E-Mail:

commander@suvpac.org

SHASTA COUNTY CALIFORNIA

CIVIL WAR/GAR MEMORIALS PROJECT

This is a very large project and we can use your assistance. If you know of a monument to the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) or Civil War-related memorial (of any size or design) near you, we invite you to share this information with the SUVCW. Please contact our Department Civil War Memorials Officer with any information.

Department Civil War Memorials Officer
E-mail: memorials@suvpac.org

Return to main Civil War Memorials page

Home
Membership
Local Camps
Dept. Officers
Event Schedule
Encampment
Rules & Regulations
Resources for Camps
Civil War Memorials
Grand Army of the Republic
History
Newsletter
Auxiliary to SUVCW
National SUVCW Website
National Graves Database
Sons of Veterans Reserve (SVR)

Location: Anderson, Shasta Co., CA 0.6 mi E of intersection of Deschutes and Dersch Rds, 6 mi NE of Anderson.	Type: Plaque - California State Historical Landmark No. 379	Reported by: Tad D. Campbell, May 2002
Status: <input type="checkbox"/> Completed <input type="checkbox"/> Submitted <input type="checkbox"/> Under Assessment <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Needs Investigation	Notes: NO. 379 FORT READING - Fort Reading, established on May 26, 1852 by Second Lieutenant E. N. Davis, Co. E, 2nd Infantry on the orders of Lieutenant Colonel George M. Wright, was the first and largest fort in Northern California. It was named in honor of Pierson Barton Reading and stood in a clearing of 10 acres. The fort was abandoned in June 1867.	Researched by:
Location: Glenburn, Shasta Co., CA SE corner of McArthur Rd (County A -19) and Soldier Mtn Dr 2 mi NW of Glenburn.	Type: General Angler[sic] Monument	Reported by: Tad D. Campbell, May 2002
Status: <input type="checkbox"/> Completed <input type="checkbox"/> Submitted <input type="checkbox"/> Under Assessment <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Needs Investigation	Notes: NO. 355 FORT CROOK (SITE OF) - Established July 1, 1857 by Lieutenant George Crook for protection of the immigrants and settlers, Fort Crook was later commanded by Captain John W. Gardner and Captain McGregor. The boundaries of the fort were set at one mile in every direction from the flagpole.	Researched by:

Abandoned June 1, 1869.

Copyright © 2002-2015 — Dept. of CA & Pacific, SUVCW
Created 8 Apr 2002; Revised 25 Aug 2015

Webmaster: Tad D. Campbell, PCinC

Visit: Norse Highlanders Genealogy.