Commander's Corner

We are halfway through our year and what a six months it has been!

PDC Jerry Sayre, has researched and found our "Camp's Namesake" Sgt. Wm Pittenger's descendants, and recruited two of them. Jerry was instrumental in replacing Pittenger's lost Civil War Medal of Honor. In June, My Chief of Staff, Kim and PDC Jerry Sayre, along with Fallbrook Historical Society then organized a Gala Event where Anne Wayman (G Granddaughter to Pittenger) along with her Children and Grandchild, presented the Medal of Honor to the Fallbrook Historical Society to put on permanent loan. The entire story is in this edition.

In September 2025, then PDC Jerry Sayre filled our JVC vacancy and has helped bring in 32 new members to our Camp 21.

We welcome our new members!

In Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty,
Fred Hall Camp Commander.

USS BENNINGTON CEREMONY

Our Camp was at Fort Rosecrans Cemetery on Saturday, July 18th, to have a ceremony to honor the Men on the USS Bennington that blew up in San Diego Harbor.

On board that ship was Civil War Union Veteran, Henry Otto Metius. Henry is buried in Mount Peace Cemetery in Philadelphia.

We had a wonderful turnout of 11 Sgt. William Pittenger Camp 21 Brothers for the USS Bennington Ceremony at Fort Rosecrans National Cemetery. Two are not in the photo

Andrews Raid Decendents

Brother Jim Meacham honors his GG Grand Uncle Medal of Honor Recipient John Wollam with this Historical Marker, Jim wrote:

The historic marker is dedicated to John Wollam, member of Andrews Raid. The reverse side of the marker tells the story of the Raid.

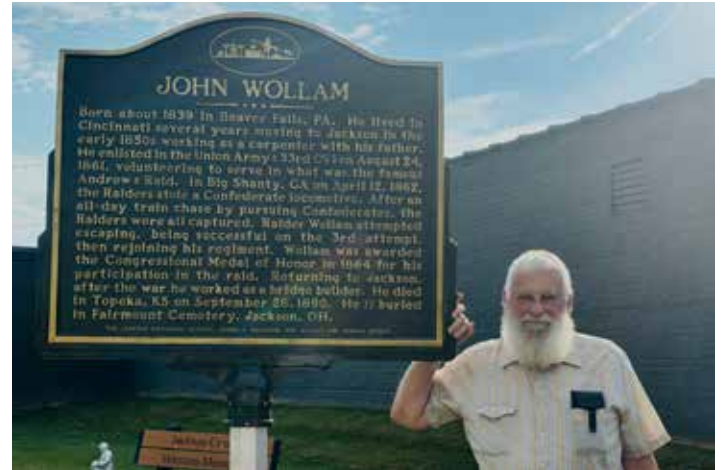

Work on the Wollam family genealogy and history has been done by myself over the last 50 years. John is my 2nd great grand uncle.

The Jackson Historical Society of Jackson, Ohio approved the idea for the marker in 2025. Members Michael and Deanna Stroth and myself have worked on the details of producing the marker for the last 2 years. The program was provided by members of the Jackson Historical Society and local community members.

Funding was through a local grant and one donation. Placement of the marker was in the Veterans Memorial Park in downtown Jackson, Ohio. Manufacture of the marker was by Sewah Studios Inc. of Marietta, Ohio.

While Jerry was searching for Descendants of the Men who received the Medal of Honor in Andrews Raid, he found Jim Meacham who is the Great Great Grand Nephew of Medal of Honor Recipient John Wollam of Jackson, Ohio. A great friendship was made between the two over hours on the phone. Last year, Jerry recruited Jim Meacham who is now a proud Brother in Sgt. William Pittenger Camp 21 and we are delighted to have him in the Camp.

I would like to share with you what Brother Jim has just accomplished on bringing an Historical Marker to the Jackson County Veterans Memorial Park in Jackson, Ohio.

Jim's incredible effort and accomplishment has brought this Historical Marker to fruition to Honor his Ancestor, Medal of Honor Recipient John Wollam.

The ceremony took place on Monday, July 6, 2026.

FROM THE CAMP HISTORIAN *

Major General William Rosecrans

After graduating from West Point in 1842, William Starke Rosecrans returned to his alma mater a year later to serve as an engineering professor. Although the academy was a bastion of Protestantism, he was a Roman Catholic with a devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, as evidenced by his personal letters. His spiritual example inspired the conversion of his younger brother, Sylvester Rosecrans, who later became the first Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Columbus, Ohio.

After resigning from the Army in 1854, Rosecrans had success as an inventor and businessman, and just days after the Confederate attack on Fort Sumter in 1861, he offered his services to Ohio governor William Dennison. Assigned as aide-de-camp to Major General George McClellan, he was soon promoted to colonel, and after briefly commanding the 23rd Ohio Infantry Regiment --- whose members included Ruth-erford

B. Hayes and William McKinley --- he was appointed a brigadier general in the regular Army.

Following successful commands at the Battle of Rich Mountain and the Battle of Corrick's Ford in western Virginia during the summer of 1861, Rosecrans was credited with outmaneuvering Confederate Brigadier General John B. Floyd and his superior, General Robert E. Lee, from recapturing the area. Despite assuming leadership of the Department of Western Virginia, Rosecrans became unpopular with General McClellan and Secretary of War Edwin Stanton, leading to the removal of thousands of soldiers from his command and temporarily stalling his career.

After being transferred to the Western Theater in May 1862, he assumed leadership of two divisions of the Army of Mississippi. Having been critical to the Union victory at the Siege of Corinth, Mississippi, in the Spring of 1862, he was granted command of the entire Army of the Mississippi, as well as the District of Corinth, and, in these roles, became the subordinate of Major General Ulysses S. Grant.

In September 1862, while seeking to halt the advance of the Confederate Army of the West, Grant deployed two armies at Luka, Mississippi --- Rosecrans's Army of the Mississippi and the Army of the Tennessee, commanded by General Edward Ord. Although Ord planned to attack in conjunction with Rosecrans, a "purported" acoustic shadow suppressed the sound of war and prevented Ord's men from realizing the battle had begun. After an afternoon of fierce fighting, entirely by Rosecrans's forces, the enemy withdrew. A month later, at the Battle of Corinth, General Rosecrans defeated a Confederate army for the second time. Despite being portrayed as a hero in the Northern press, he was criticized by General Grant for perceived tactical errors.

Next, he was appointed leader of the Army of the Cumberland and, in January 1863, at the Battle of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, he commanded a hard-fought Union victory, with the highest percentages of casualties occurring on both sides of any major battle of the war. During the following summer, he led what is regarded by historians as a brilliant maneuver during the ten-day Tullahoma Campaign, driving the Confederates out of Middle Tennessee and threatening the strategic city of Chattanooga.

In September 1863, Rosecrans's impressive string of successful commands came to a disastrous end at the Battle of Chickamauga, which was the first major battle fought in Georgia, and the most significant Union defeat in the Western Theater. Only the Battle of Gettysburg had more casualties.

Following his military career, General Rosecrans served as Minister to Mexico, and was elected U.S. Representative of California's first Congressional district. He died on March 11, 1898, and is buried at Arlington National Army.

Fort Rosecrans and Fort Rosecrans National Cemetery, both located in San Diego, bear his name.

For our newer Brothers in the Camp: Sons Of Veterans Reserve (SVR)

You may ask... "What is the SVR?" It is the "Ceremonial Uniformed Division". (Uniforms worn in Parades, Ceremonies, Historical Events, Re-Enactments, etc.)

For those of you have not already joined the SVR (Son's of Veterans Reserve) and are considering doing so and "perhaps purchasing a uniform" down the line, do note:

This is another GREAT way to show your support for our Ancestors who wore the Union Blue.

1. In Sgt. William Pittenger Camp 21, the yearly dues for Company G, 5th California are only $5.00 a year.
2. You do not have to purchase a uniform to support the SVR, but your support is greatly appreciated.
3. If you have any questions, you may contact Mark Goodman PCC (who is also a Brother in Pittenger Camp 21) and is the Commander of Company G. E-mail: goodman.csmr@gmail.com or phone: (619) 203-1845.
4. I have provided you an SVR Application below that you can print, fill out, and mail to Commander Mark Goodman along with a check made out to SVR or $5.00 cash if you prefer.

Mail to: Mark Goodman 1277 N. Mollison Ave., #E, El Cajon, CA 92021 (See next page for application)

The SVR or Son's of Veterans Reserve is the ceremonial uniformed military component of the SUVCW and functions to honor Union soldiers, preserve Civil War history, and support patriotic public events.

Dr. Wayne Eder is the Department Commander for California and the Pacific and the SVR 6th Military District.

He works very closely with Mark Goodman who is the SVR Captain for Sgt. William Pittenger Camp 21.

For those interested in participating it is only $5 to join SVR on top of your SUVCW dues.

Brother John Gilman traveled to the Scottish Highlands and spent five days in Edinburgh.

There's a statue of Lincoln in the Old Calton Burial Ground in Edinburgh honoring Lincoln and six Scottish-American Veterans from the American Civil War.

Their names are inscribed on the base of the statue.

Brother Jack Bruzas Celebrates 97th Birthday!!

I would like to say “Thank You” to all the SUVCW Brothers all across the Country who answered the call and mailed SUVCW Brother Jack Bruzas a Birthday Card to celebrate his 97th Birthday!!

Jack was scheduled to attend the Camp Meeting, but had a fall the day before his Birthday, hit his head and hurt his arm, took a ride by ambulance to the hospital, got stitched up, and is now home recovering.

Today, Jerry and I stopped by Jack’s house to deliver this lovely basket of cards from all across the Country that you Men sent in, and there were lots of cards!! We found Jack resting comfortably and we enjoyed a nice visit with him. It is going to take Jack some time to get through all the cards, but he was very happy and surprised by the kindness shown to him.
