Camp Commanders Corner ~ by Will Tisch

Elections and installation of officers was completed at the 125th National Encampment of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War in Harrisburg, PA. Our new CinC, James Pahl, has extensive credentials in law enforcement and I hold Brother Pahl in high esteem, having confidence in his capability to perform well as our newest Commander. During the proceedings, a very special honor was bestowed on our Camp's newsletter, The General. The Marshall Hope award for Best Camp Newsletter was also presented to our Camp in 2004. This is reflective of the tremendous job our Camp Brothers have been doing supporting the SUVCW and the superb editing and coordination effort of our Newsletter Editor and JVC, Dave Allyn. Well Done Brother Allyn and Bravo Zulu!!! Keep those articles coming Brothers!!! Also commended at the National Encampment was Camp Council Member Brother Jerry Sayre for recruiting five new members this past term. This is especially important to our Camp to help augment our membership base. And Brother Jerry is also serving on the National Committee on Americanization and Education. Huzzah for Brother Sayre!!! Our hats are also off to Brother Bob Lowe for serving on the National Committee on Communications and Technology and the National Committee on Graves Registration. Bob has input 10's of 1000's of our Civil War Veterans into our database. There are even Civil War Veterans who are buried in England that are listed. Of Major note is that Phil Sheridan Camp 4 of the Department of California and Pacific won best Camp in the SUVCW - Congratulations to Commander Dan Earl and the Brothers of Camp 4. Major issues that were discussed and are in work are the transmission of electronic media, maintained by National, to a much larger Computer Server. This means an improved website for member's use and a more attractive layout to generate greater public interest. Online information will be more readily accessible to a greater degree and larger amounts of historical data will be available for young people to learn about the Civil War. Also reiterated at the National Encampment are the need to stay united and strong at the Camp level since the Camp is the basic unit of the SUVCW and the basis for all membership involvement. Senior Vice Commander Tom Helmantoler is to be commended on the fine job he did leading our last meeting and I look forward to seeing all of you at our next meeting. Huzzah for the Boys in Blue!!!! ~ Your Commander, Will.

REFLECTIONS ON THE NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT, 2006

First off - I need to say "Thank You!" to the entire Tisch and Cummings families, with heartfelt emotion from both my wife, Brenda, and myself. Our Odyssey began on August 4th and 5th with trips to New York City and Richmond, VA. And, of course, ending August 14th at Gettysburg and Harrisburg, PA. During this time, our Camp Commander, Will Tisch and one of the most amazing women I've ever met, Eileen Tisch, showed us a wonderful time together. Will definitely knows how to drive in New York City! During our journey, we saw many things and places of historical significance: a short list is in order: "Ground Zero," The Statue of Liberty, The Empire State Building and Grant's Tomb in NYC; Fredericksburg National Military Park and the Soldier's Museum, in Fredericksburg, VA. Hollywood Cemetery in Richmond VA. and Gettysburg National Military Park.

We arrived at the National Encampment in Harrisburg on August 9th. We checked into the Hilton Hotel where the encampment was held. The staff greeting us was very helpful. Everything was in order and well-prepared. I found lots of friends from Camp 21. You guys are Awesome! Thanks go to Jerry & Kim Sayre and Bob & Rosemary Lowe.

The meetings were in large rooms: the

SUVCW in one and the Auxilliary to the SUVCW and Ladies of the GAR in another. Much pomp and circumstance was in order. Everybody looked grand in their uniforms. Polished brass and bright faces were everywhere. Glen Roosevelt of Camp 17, as always, was with the Flags at the opening ceremony. Dept. Commander Tad Campbell from Camp 4 was also present. Opening prayer was offered by National Chaplain, Jerry Kowalski; a man I had many conversations with during the event. Introduction included our hosts, SUVCW CinC, Don Darby, ASUVCW President, Cynthia Fox and LGAR President, Opal Nelson. Meetings covered the usual topics; old and new business, etc. It was interesting for a 'rookie' such as me. Everyone was cordial. The only time I heard raised, angry voices was at the discussion of desecration of some of the monuments at Gettysburg. Camp 21 was awarded 'Best Camp Newsletter': congratulations Dave Allyn! Many events after the business meetings were held. My wife and I had a wonderful time. Allied Orders people were helpful and informed. The tour of Gettysburg (see article by Bob Lowe elsewhere in this issue) was very touching for many; so much ancestry involved. (Continued Pg. 7)

Welcome New Brother !

Jeffrey Finical of Chula Vista whose ancestor served in the 81st Ohio Infantry

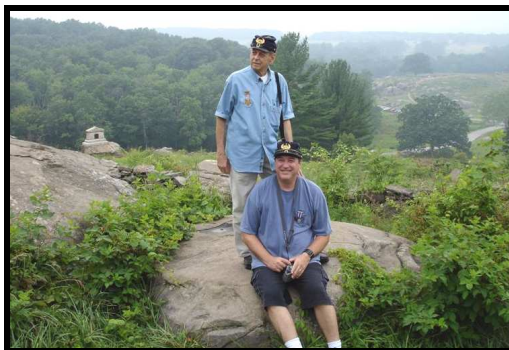

Recruiting should be every member's aim. If the SUVCW is going to grow, we need new men to carry on the Order's goals and objectives. We have recruiting newsletters available to give to anyone who inquires - contact John May or Dave Allyn. Think of this: if each of us set a goal to recruit just one new member per year, we could double the size of the Camp. Don't you know someone who has an interest?

One of the optional activities offered during the 125th National Encampment in Harrisburg was a bus tour of Gettysburg on Thursday, Aug 10 2006. Two busloads of Brothers, Sisters and guests left the Hilton Hotel, each with a tour guide provided by the Dept of PA. Eric Schmincke, PA Dept. Commander lead one tour bus, while John McNulty was in charge of the bus we were on. Brother McNulty, a history professor at Penn State, was most informed and no stranger to this type of activity as he leads bus tours of Gettysburg with his students several times a year. On the drive from Harrisburg, John provided a brief history of events leading up the July 1-3 battle between the Army of the Potomac and Army of Northern Virginia. Once in Gettysburg, John provided an interesting running commentary and little-known facts between the five scheduled stops. The chosen stops were The Peace Light Monument near the first day's action, the North Carolina Monument on Confederate Avenue, Little Round Top and the "High Water Mark" near "The Angle." Ample time was given at each stop for photo opportunities and commentary was presented which clarified action and history of each location. The tour culminated at the Monument to the GAR and Albert Woolson in Ziegler's Grove on North Hancock Avenue, where we met other Allied Orders members from Harrisburg who had not taken the tour, members of various SVR units, public dignitaries and representatives of the National Military Park at Gettysburg. The occasion was the re-dedication of the monument described above which was originally dedicated fifty years ago in 1956. Appropriate comments were made and wreaths placed by CinC Don Darby, National Presidents of the various Allied Orders and a representative of Gettysburg NMP. A check was presented to the NMPG from the SUVCW to further monument restoration. During the return to our hotel, rounds of Civil War trivia were played with winners receiving copies of two books authored by a well-respected and recently deceased Brother of the Department of PA. All agreed that the afternoon was educational, enjoyable and whetted our appetite for future visits to the hallowed ground of Gettysburg.

Bob Lowe and Will Tisch atop Little Round Top: 'The Devil's Den' is in the right background and the 16th Michigan Mounment is in the left background.

Also on Little Round Top, Jerry Sayre rubs 'nose' of Col. Patrick O'Rourke - as has been done since the monument was erected - it's considered lucky even though O'Rourke was killed there !

(Cont. from Pg. 2) At the final night, the Allied Orders held a banquet at the Harrisburg Museum, which included a free admission enjoyed by all. Thank you to all involved; it was a grand event which I hope to have the honor of attending in the future. God Bless The Allied Orders and the SUVCW !
